God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.

Therefore we will not fear, though the earth be moved, and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea;

Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled, though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof.

There is a river, the streams whereof shall make glad the city of God, the holy place of the tabernacles of the most High.

God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved: God shall come to her aid at early dawn.

The Twenty-Third Psalm
The Lord is my shepherd: I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
He leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
for thou art with me; thy rod and
thy staff they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies;
thou anointest my head with oil;
my cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow
me all the days of my life;
and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

COMFORT

Oh, deem not they are blest alone
Whose lives a peaceful tenor keep;
The Power who pities man has shown
A blessing for the eyes that weep.

The light of smiles shall fill again
The lids that overflow with tears;
And weary hours of woe and pain
Are promises of happier years.

For God has marked each sorrowing day,
And numbered every secret tear,
And heaven's long age of bliss shall pay
For all his children suffer here.

July 15, 1874 - May 7, 1898

“Sister Fannie Lyon after a long siege of illness died at the home of her parents May 7, 1898. She professed religion and was baptized and received into the fellowship of the church during a meeting held at Chinquapin Grove by Elders G. P. Faw and T. H. Crouch the 13th of March 1887 aged 24 years. She lived the life of a Christian and died in the faith, and is gone to her reward. Such evidence is sufficient to believe that she is now in the glory world with the Angels around the Throne of God. Respectfully submitted D. N. Lyon.”
